++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with sunny spells. Light winds.

Today:
A mostly dry and bright day with sunny spells, the best of these across northern parts. Rather more cloud is expected at times across the south and eastern coasts. A few afternoon showers are possible in the south and west.

Tonight:
Some late sunny then clear spells, especially across central and northwestern parts. Cloudier across the south and for eastern coasts. Mainly dry, but risk of showers in southeast later.

Friday:
Northern and northeastern Scotland dry with good spells of sunshine developing. Cloudier across the south with occasionally heavy showers, these developing more widely across western parts in afternoon. Light winds.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Unsettled through the weekend and Monday with showers or longer spells of rain, heavy and perhaps thundery at times. Still feeling warm in any sunshine with mainly light winds.
